

Long About Now

Scott Walker

Long about now
He's heading home
Back from the rain
Burned to the ground

His ashes will rise black butterflies
Tapping at my window pane

He'll want to rest within my design
All the way to the end
Lighting my skies all up inside again

Dimming Summer

Long about now
He's headin' home
Drowning the games
That steel a man

Long about now
He'll shrug and sigh and need me again
