

Where's the Man

Scott Weiland

Where's your man
He's lost and gone again
What is your name?
The name behind the shame
Where's the cup,
It was filled, now
Broken up
Where's your man

He's lost and gone again
As I get behind the wheel again
Pray to live a million years
You know I lied but
If it makes you glad
I'll tell you what you want to hear
