

The Zoo Closes At Dark

Scream

There is no war - just death
And we'll blow ourselves up till there's nothing left
'Cept the reason we're told to accept
There is no war - just death
This is no Greyhound Bus line
And I'm about to blow my mind
There is no war - just death

The zoo closes (4x)

Don't be surprised when death is thrown in your eyes
Too late to realize

There is no war - just death
And we'll blow ourselves up till there's nothing left
'Cept the reason we're told to accept
There is no war - just death
This is no Greyhound Bus line
And I'm about to blow my mind
There is no war - just death

'Cept the reason we're told to accept
