All I Know

Screaming Trees

Bite the thorn that pierce the skin Come back down to earth again The cold is creeping deep inside You disconnect the telephone line

Gotta get away
Gotta get away
Get away
Gotta get away
'fore the lord gonna make me stay

All that I know Shoulda been Coulda been Mine

I killed the last way out of this Persuaded by a deceitful kiss

That said you better stay
Said you better stay
Better stay
Said you better stay
'fore it's all gone
Gone away

All that I know...

Bite the thorn that pierce the skin Come back down to earth again The cold is creeping deep inside You disconnect the telephone line

Gotta get away....
'fore I lose my mind
Said you better stay...
'fore it's all gone
Gone away

All that I know...
