

Last Words

Screaming Trees

'Til my last words
Take away the breath I hold inside
'Til my last words
Drift away like moments from a dream
Hear them echo in the corners of the mind
Hear them echo in the years I couldn't find
'Til I'm gone behind the sun up in the sky
And in my last words

Don't reconcile and I've nothing else to give Nothing else but anger how it seems
Hear the silence in the years I couldn't find
Hear the silence in the corners of the mind
'Til I'm gone behind the sun up in the sky

When my last words
Speak the truth and I know I'm letting go
Take away your sorrow when I leave
Hear the moment slip away I couldn't find
Hear the sorrow slip away into the night
Hear the breath slip away I hold inside
