

Tomorrow Changes

Screaming Trees

Tomorrow Changes
The night is calm before the storm
Lying quiet down below
I know you'll try to turn away
This is a place where I can't stay

And when tomorrow changes
Change your mind
Look into these eyes
And when tomorrow changes
Change tonight
Don't say goodbye

The tie that binds us both is gone
And now I feel you don't belong
Strangest tears I'm speaking from
This is all I ever done

And when tomorrow changes
Change your mind
Look into these eyes
When tomorrow changes
Change to light
Don't say goodbye

Now that midnight's door has closed
All the pieces come undone
Find the ashes here and there
Innocent (4x) (or In a song, In a storm, something like that)

Night is calm before the storm
Lying quiet down below
Strangest place that I can't stay
Hang your head down and...
And when tomorrow changes
Change your mind
Look into these eyes
When tomorrow changes
Change tonight
Don't say goodbye
