

Die Alone

Scritti Politti

RAPPER: Disconnected inter-connected, I wrecked it
GREEN: Not what the letter of the law suspected
RAPPER: Candy and Sublime are friends of mine
Maybe I'll have met 'em in the mists of time
Whenever hold tight to what (what) to whatever I got
And how I'm going to get to the whether or not
GREEN: We oughta see through this
RAPPER: Oh we do this yeah
BOTH: Discensus is our word for today, now is that OK?

FEMALE: Round and round
Round and round
GREEN: Round and round and round

RAPPER: I'll make an incision, sleep like volcano (oh yeah, it's not better)
I'll make the confession, good 'cause I say so (oh yeah, it's not better)
I'll make an admission, big like neutrino (oh yeah, it's not better)
I'll make a decision, I'm all ones and zeros

GREEN: Throw me up 'n' come over
Throw me down 'n' come under
Roll around in the clover and wonder
So you were the alone
Since I was a boy
Hold 'em down and we know you'll die alone

RAPPER: Yeah, let a thousand thoughts contend
I can hear myself thinking but it all depends
GREEN: It's like a Tower of Babel
RAPPER: Unable to get your fix on it
GREEN: Get your kicks on it
RAPPER: I bet you're sick with it, tell you how it is White grey for your livelong day
GREEN: Refrigerator humming
RAPPER: You're going or
BOTH: You're coming
RAPPER: You're numb enough to tolerate the pain
The penalty for gaining an insight, damn right

FEMALE: Round and round
GREEN: Round and round and round
FEMALE: Round and round

We know you by now
We know you by now

Throw me up 'n' come over
Throw me down 'n' come under
Throw me up 'n' come over
Throw me down 'n' come under
