

Robin Sparrow

Seabear

Robin Sparrow
Know you're the only one
Who can make me sing

And if our hands should Meet again
Let them

Too much is what you talk
Time might take a flight
and lock the door

'Cause I'm not passing it here on your radio and there's a train coming forward
We'll know when to listen

Oh Robin Sparrow
Know you're the only one
Who can make me sing
