

Finally Done Right

Seabird

Michael's come home
To reclaim his throne.
I guess we should have known
That this day would come.

The psychic couldn't read it,
Crystal ball couldn't see it.
I guess we should have known
That Michael would come home.

Gonna take back the stage,
Change the whole game.
Clear up his cause
'Cause Michael's here to stay.

The psychic couldn't read it,
Crystal ball couldn't see it.
I guess we should have known
That Michael would come home.

And oh no, here comes now.
His feet move faster than light.
Oh no, here he comes now.
The moonwalk finally done right.

We made you a king
Before they made you a monster.
If music was your queen,
I pray you've not forgot her.

Michael's come home
Michael's come home
to reclaim his throne.
I guess we should have known
That this day would come.
