

To this day
I do not understand who we were
Just what made our encounters so sincere
An isle in time
Our love a shelter

And to this day
Those tears I shed burn into my face
You turned around and walked without a trace
You cut the lifeline

You held me down
I'm tied up on your sheets
You turned to liquid
Read my needs

You shared my passion
Surrendered to the mob
Played the game
And fell apart again

I hold you down
You're tied up on the sheets
We turn to liquid
Pulse in heat

Share the passion at
The mercy of the mob
Play the game
Then fall apart just the same

There was so much I wanted you to know
Worlds I wanted you to see
Now there's only me
Only me

Bewildered
Motionless
Gagged and without hope
I just don't know how to cope
I just don't know how to cope

To this day
I do not understand who you were
Just what made our encounters so sincere
An isle in time
Your love a shelter

And to this day
Those tears I shed burn into on my face
You turned around and walked without a trace
You cut the lifeline
