

Travelling

Seabound

Every day I travel
To keep my mind quiet in its cage
Every night I`m dancing
With the images I generate

What moves my soul ?
Where do I go ?

Restless I keep searching
To understand the madman`s heart

I`m wandering the streets of pain
Taking the confusion
Shed my skin, adore the rain
Merge in the illusion

There`s no use denying
The truth beyond our anxious lies
Paradise is fiction
And love`s a desperate compromise

We will burn
Feel the fascination
You will learn

I`m wandering the streets of pain
Taking the confusion
Shed my skin, adore the rain
Merge in the illusion

We`re walking down the streets of pain
Sharing the confusion
Leave your home, forget your name
Merge in the illusion
