

Wildfire

Seafret

You think you know all about it then it seems you are wrong,
She hit it out of the park before it'd even begun,
I needed sunshine in the darkness burning out,
Well now I know that I'm the fuel and she's the spark.

We are bound to each other's hearts,
Cold, torn, and pulled apart
This love, is like wildfire,
And to my word now I'll be true,
I can't stop this breaking loose
This love, is like wildfire,
Like wildfire.

This feelings arranged deep down inside,
Try describing a love you can't design,
More and more, every inch of me is holding on,
This is it all the flames are burning strong.

We are bound to each other's hearts,
Cold, torn and pulled apart
This love, is like wildfire,
And to my word now I'll be true,
I can't stop this breaking loose
This love, is like wildfire,
Like wildfire,
Like wildfire.

You think you know all about it then it seems you are wrong,
She hit it out of the park before it'd even begun.

We are bound to each other's hearts,
Cold, torn and pulled apart
This love, is like wildfire
And to my word now I'll be true,
I can't stop this breaking loose
This love, is like wildfire,
Like wildfire,
Like wildfire,
Like wildfire.
