

If And Any Day

Seals & Crofts

If and any day I love you, father. You will be the one I believe in longer.

I can only try to understand you. You can only smile and understand me.

Tell me how did I lose my way? Isn't there a door that leads to yesterday?

Oh how did I lose my way? Isn't there a door that opens into another day?

If and any time I see the sorrow. I will spend the longest time 'til I go under. [?]

Love is for the ones who believe in one on one. Truth is for the ones who believe there's more to come.

Tell me how did I lose my way? Isn't there a door that leads to yesterday?

Oh how did I lose my way? Isn't there a door that opens into another day?

Tell me how did I lose my way? Isn't there a door that leads to yesterday?

Oh how did I lose my way? Isn't there a door that opens into another day?
