Today

Seals & Crofts

Today went so softly, just faded away. Like the rain in the springtime. On that day, I met you. I met you, when I met you.

Today went so quietly, I turned and it was gone. Like you, like me, it was lonely. It went on, it went on, it went on.

Then a beautiful thing happened, and we were one. And all the world was a beautiful face to be lost in.

Today went so quickly, just a moment in time. Like the hours in springtime. When you were mine, you were mine, you were mine, you were mine.

Then a beautiful thing happened, and we were one. And all the world was a beautiful face to be lost in. Today! Today!
