

Ice Cream Girl

Sean Kingston

Give me an ice cream
Girl for the weekend
Kind of girl she built for any season
For the winter... for the fall
Even in the summer... time is no fall
You wanna a ice cream
Girl for the weekend
A pocket full of dough you wanna blow on the weekend
Young fresh and clean... you know what I mean
Everybody knows the female that loves the ice cream

My rum raisin... she drunk in the club
She
She got a man... he's always cheating
N her daddy left her when she was 18

Ride here ride her... she the life of the party
She in that of the limosine... look like someone from a magazine
She such a beauty queen... got me spending all my cream

Give me an ice cream
Girl for the weekend
Kind of girl she built for any season
For the winter... for the fall
Even in the summer... time is no fall
You wanna a ice cream
Girl for the weekend
A pocket full of dough you wanna blow on the weekend
Young fresh and clean... you know what I mean
Everybody knows the female that loves the ice cream

Once upon a time... let's go back to the scene
She was a prom queen... n you were the prom king
Pinky swear that you would never separate
Cause you was drafted for the nba
I used to worry about your best friend
I don't trust nobody named frosty the snowman
Frosty oh where u at?
Now ice cream man...

He reminisced of the limosine
Looked like something from a magazine
She such a beauty queen
Had him spending all his cream

Give me an ice cream meant for the weekend
Body toned up reeady for the beach and
Young fresh and clean... you know what I mean
Everybody knows the feen that loves the ice cream

You wanna a ice cream
Girl for the weekend
A pocket full of dough you wanna blow on the weekend
Young fresh and clean... you know what I mean
Everybody knows the female that loves the ice cream
