

The Hour Of Burning

Sear Bliss

Threatening clouds darken the sky
The air is filled with infernal heart
Wicked flames are longing to taste
Her witching body

Ghastly voices echo in the dusk
Faceless demons waiting for their feast to come
When the darksky is about to open

Despair and horror everywhere
The terrific visions became reality
There's no way to escape
It is the utter end

Memories fade away
Like when mountains disappear
In thick haze

Despair and horror everywhere
The time has come to understand
The lethal wisdom of hell

The angry flames like hungry wolves bite the flesh
They're licking her with ecstatic lust
Time passes slowly when she is devoured by fire

Only fine ashes you leave
But your spirit unseen flies away

Time and space do no more
You step out on the way of stars again
Step out on the way of stars again...
