

Hell Is

Seasons After

He will come like a whisper
Like a thief in the night

With everything you do
And everything you say
You dig yourself a hole
You make a bed to lay
And with your newfound name
You still remain the same
Still laying endless blame

Cuts will leave scars
And some of them will never heal
I am content with this
I never forgot to feel

Please believe this scene
The writing's on the wall
For all to see
And I can't show you

Living for the dream
My little hell this is
Being what you see
And hiding everything
I'm burning so it's hard to breathe
Just give it all to me
Will you bleed for me
Bleed the soul we've given in

My enigmatic vision
Pushes me through the dream
Reminding myself
Things aren't always what they seem
I can't stand here
Watching you destroy everything we built
I believe I can see
What you want me to be
I'm not that

Please believe this scene
The writing's on the wall
For all to see
And I can't show you

My little hell this is
Being what you see
And hiding everything
I'm burning so it's hard to breathe
Just give it all to me
Will you bleed for me

Growing up now in this tragic world
Another war began, another flag unfurled
Trying to see past the darkness saturating it all

Will we have to be here to witness it all fall

Will we have to be here to witness it all fall

Will we have to be here to witness it all fall

Will we have to be here to witness it all fall

Will we have to be here to witness it all fall

What's wrong with

This world we bought into

Just trying to live through

Plastic lives pass us by

But we cry just to try

To reach out

Break through, get to

A place of enlightenment

Far from the darkening

As it goes

We grow cold

We grow old

All as one

We're dying

Living for the dream

My little hell this is

Being what you see

And hiding everything

I'm burning so it's hard to breathe

Just give it all to me

Will you bleed for me
