

Maybe I'm not the one who tries
Living in a typical life, a typical lie
Maybe I'm not losing my mind
I could be the one that lasts this time

And I swear it happened in Portland
It came to me
Fuck what you think is important

Maybe I'm a freak and nobody knows my name
And nobody knows gets that strange to me is ordinary
So maybe I'm a freak
But you freak you me
(You freak me out)
(You freak me out)

I love the feeling when I sleep at night
Distractions running through my mind
But still sometimes I need a place where I can feel alright
I hope that I can last this time

And I swear it happened in Portland
Your nightmares came to me without warning

So maybe I'm a freak and nobody knows my name
And nobody knows gets that strange to me is ordinary
Maybe I'm a freak and nobody knows my name
And nobody knows gets that strange to me is ordinary
So maybe I'm a freak but you freak you me
(You freak me out)
(You freak me out)

So tell me why it's so out of the question to be one of a kind
To be someone you like
There's so much more to me than could ever meet your eyes

So maybe I'm a freak and nobody knows my name
And nobody knows gets that strange to me is ordinary
Maybe I'm a freak and nobody knows my name
And nobody knows gets that strange to me is ordinary
So maybe I'm a freak but you freak you me
(You freak me out)
(You freak me out)

Maybe I'm a freak
Maybe I'm a freak
So maybe I'm a freak
