

Last Punk

Seaway

So let me tell you what I've learned, dreams won't come true,
And I know, and I know that you want them to.
So just fall in line and you will be happy, just do your time they say.

Fuck that, I can do better than that. You'll see.

I can feel it comin on and on and on,
Up all night, it's been so long,
Since I've seen your face around these parts,
I never thought I had the heart.
I can feel it now too bad you're gone.

So let me tell you what I know, dreams will come true,
And I know, and I know they don't want you to,
Be all that you can be, but trust me, yeah trust me,
Do it for you, do it for you.

Yeah, We'll be the last punks left. You'll see.

I can feel it comin on and on and on,
Up all night, it's been so long,
Since I've seen your face around these parts,
I never thought I had the heart.
I can feel it now too bad you're gone.

I can feel the water crashing down upon our heads.
Just you and me and the open sea, we'll pack our bags
and we'll sail away, we'll sail away.

I can feel it comin on and on and on,
Up all night, it's been so long,
Since I've seen your face around these parts,
I never thought I had the heart.
I can feel it now too bad you're gone.

PEACE.
