Mystery Man

Sebadoh

Earnest little lover, little mystery man Nothing thrills you like denial There's nothing wrong with the need to please And children know no shame Baby on your bended knees and she'd love to play your game She's a curious girl easily swayed by your force of will Empty to be filled with the hunger for more What if time denies you, the key to your fulfillment fails? Around the world again on a boat that sinks as it sails Stand shoulders above her Pick her up when you love her Rub it right when you use her Need it so bad you abuse her But don't leave her alone 'cause soon she'll be tasting The sweet unknown If it feeds her candy she'll follow it home Make your claim, she's legally yours When she shares your name But don't lose control 'cause you'll scare her away Go on beg her to stay
