Telecosmic Alchemy

Sebadoh

In blase and dream away Nothin' grew, so mark it bland (?) I'm sad, fuck sad, I'm teary-eyed Want a lovey-dovey honey, that's what I like I'm the finest drifter you'll ever meet I'm the kindest drifter you'll ever meet Don't think nothin' cards condemn I'm sure we both cut and shuffle them I cry 'cause I'm drunk, plead 'cause I'm down Gravity immune, yeah, I didn't leave town Learn to talk, teach me alchemy Now the witch can't spell what my future might be Want a lovey-dovey honey that will learn to talk I bought the gin and tonic, if you care to walk Carry on I will, my soul melting down Rotten beans, stumbling, now it's nothing but the town I'm the finest drifter you'll ever hate But I'll cook for you and I'll clean my plate
