

Remiel in Flames

Sebastien

When I'm alone in cold windy day
You can make me feel okay
You've found me moaning mean in stony wind

In a night
During the time
I can't sleep and want to find
Why I'm lonely shadow lost in line

Searching
and praying

(Save my heart)
Dying angel in my arms
Is wathing me eyes to eyes
Silent heartbeat is waking my deep cry
Save my heart

Carry on the broken wings
As the dark winters' dance to springs
I'm out of my own
You're crying for my soul of stone

Another day is waking me up
From a bottom of nightttime to the top
Save me, please, for my mind
Listen to the ground chant

Searching
and praying

(Save my heart)
Dying angel in my arms
Is wathing me eyes to eyes
Silent heartbeat is waking my deep cry
Save my heart

Carry on the broken wings
As the dark winters' dance to springs
I'm out of my own
You're crying for my soul of stone

I've got a soul of stone

Dying angel in my sickness
Is wathing me eyes to eyes
Silent heartbeat is waking my deep cry
Save my heart

Leave me alone, broken wings
As the dark winters' dance to springs
I'm out of my own
You're crying for my soul of stone
