

Come Back to Me

Secondhand Serenade

I've been trying, to think of anything to say
For you just to believe that I've got nothing up my sleeve
I'm here to stay
But my hopes are shrinking with each and every single day
Then I wake up minus one
I've had enough this isn't fun, let's run away

You bring me sunshine wherever I go
You are the fire when I feel cold
Honestly, you're in my dreams
Come back to me, come back to me, darling

I'm not denying
That you're the perfect kind of girl for me
When I'm with you, I can't breathe
My heart is falling off my sleeve
My knees are weak
So let's get going, we've got places to see
Let's get to living if you're willing
Bring it back just like my dealer, don't you see

You bring me sunshine wherever I go
You are the fire when I feel cold
Honestly, you're in my dreams
Come back to me, come back to me
You make the clouds roll off with your smile
If love is the fashion, then I love your style
You may say no, but I say si
Come back to me, come back to me, darling

Look in my eyes, you will see a surprise, baby
This is our chance, so say yes
There are no maybes
This could be our way out, don't you see
I am down on my knee

This is the way I show you I care
When I am alone and you are not there
I write this song to you, no one compares
I wish you'd see, come back to me

You bring me sunshine wherever I go
You are the fire when I feel cold
Honestly, you're in my dreams
Come back to me, come back to me
You make the clouds roll off with your smile
If love is the fashion, then I love your style
You may say no, but I say si
Come back to me, come back to me
Come back to me, come back to me
Come back to me, come back to me, darling
