Secondhand Serenade

Hold the phone, what's going on?
I've been living with the clouds too long
But the sun is shining and I feel
I can finally drop the past and make it
And I don't know why it took so long
For me to tell you that I was wrong
People'd say my heart would break one day
But I never thought I'd be the one to break it

Living faster every day
I made mistakes along the way
But now I know that I can't say
I was undefeated, undefeated

Sit right here, let me tell you so you understand
A better man is not defined by the past he left behind
If he finally sees the truth and takes it
This is all I ever wanted, for me to finish what I started
Life's too short, too good, too fast
So I'm never gonna get this chance again

Living faster every day
I made mistakes along the way
But now I know that I can't say
I was undefeated, undefeated

We don't need to know
What the future holds
We can take it slow
Like a sailing ship at sea
This is meant to be
No, it's not just as it seems
We could be undefeated, undefeated

Living faster every day
I made mistakes along the way
But now I know that I can't say
I was undefeated, undefeated
