

One Good Reason

Secret Discovery

Please give me one good reason, give me a reason to be strong when I'm falling further down
I'm on a trip to nowhere,
I don't remember where I go and I'm falling further down
I'm on a trip to nowhere,
I have a way so far to go, and I'm falling ...

Feel it, it's a way so far,
I don't think about, but I still need more

And I know, this way is strange, and always I need more, this addiction drags me down it's the greed that leads my hands, it's the greed for what I don't have, I take it ...
And I wonder where I am, this place i've never seen, I'm falling ...
It's more than I can take,
there is no reason to be strong ... I'm falling ...

Feel it, it's a way so far, I don't think about, but I still need more ...

don't you feel it ..
