

Cutting Corners

Secret Service

Cutting corners to get into your heart
Cutting corners to be sure that I reach you
Cutting corners to get into your heart
I gotta get I have start to get into your heart
To get into your heart

Only guy who never counts easy go, comes in first Second question just this worth, coming third three or few words
Now it's summer set, I'll never ever have a chance
Got to say that I could never ever reach your glance
Look what I've got in my hands

Cutting corners to get into your heart
Cutting corners to be sure that I reach you
Cutting corners to get into your heart
I gotta get I have start to get into your heart
To get into your heart

Never say you - rather blanch, when you find me lost in game
Only you can make a change, save if trouble fixed the lane
There was summer set, why do you even wanna try
Going home and see her walking with some other guy
Second best to late my style

Cutting corners to get into your heart
Cutting corners to be sure that I reach you
Cutting corners to get into your heart
I gotta get I have start to get into your heart
To get into your heart.
