

Destiny of Love

Secret Service

It was just before the sunsire
And I close my eyes again
I saw you smiling

I remember we were dancing
In the silence of the rain
And you were smiling

Nothing's what it seems
Moment from a dream
The destiny of love
The destiny of love

We were standing in the twilight
Just waiting for the sign
And there was silence

In the fasion of that moment
In the tension of that night
There was silence

Nothing's what it seems
Moment from a dream
The destiny of love
The destiny of love.
