

Desire

Secret Sphere

More than sweet words, a stream of emotions,
Then around everything disappear,
Hands are cold, tough the breath,
In a moment you possess my desire

Somewhere I'll meet your eyes again,
Under the rays of the moon you'll be mine, babe desire, my dreams caress you, but I can't wait for laying together, living what seems to take a shape more than meet the eyes, I look at my empty arms,

I pretend you're close to my heart,
Suddenly I realize maybe you're feeling the same Yeah, such a disarmed stare never lies

Somewhere I'll meet your eyes again,
Under the rays of the moon
You will be mine, babe

In the night I need you here,
In the heart of this night, it grows from my heart
...deep from my heart, it's screaming desire, my lips are on you but I can't stand I'm just forever, chasing what seems to fade away
