

I feel my heartbeat's slowly rising and all my memories disperse in the wind, surrounded by a mysterious tune i'm dancing without thoughts I follow you, I follow my desire

You are a liar,
I'll take your innocence, you'll pay this way

Come into my world children, now close your eyes
and dance with me, forget your name, small creatures, children and all,
you have to free your mind from the past and to follow my notes

All around me, everywhere here reigns a silence, now the rain is falling down and the moon stands pale in the sky, creatures of night, where may I be?
Small eyes are staring in darkness, creatures of night, guide me to my home, guide wherever you please

Here I am,
I'm your savior,
you will be free

Come into my world children,
now close your eyes
and dance with me, forget your name,
small creatures, children and all,

...so the rain is falling down and a new city is born...
