Line On Fire

Secret Sphere

There's no limit to the madness of the human being In a world of chaos like puppet people suffering the pain, pain with no mercy

At the borders of reality we live and die When a passion runs your life you have to stop Into the line of fire

Damnation Angels Into The Fire Down with the Angels To the flames I'm bound

Suffocated by the rules of evil hearts In a world of trade there's no desire That takes my mind away, in a cage forever

In the night their soul is Screaming out in desperate cries Flesh & Blood a sacrifice To feed their foolish pride Undisclosed desire

Damnation Angels Into The Fire Down with the Angels To the flames I'm bound

Line on fire, line on fire, darkened mind control the fears Line on fire, line on fire, riders of the apocalypse on earth Line on fire, line on fire, savage souls rumble the streets Line on fire, line on fire, blinded by the hypocrisy

I'm just sick without an ending Wait for my return Blind eyes can see my surroundings

Damnation Angels Into The Fire Down with the Angels To the flames I'm bound
