

The Three Beggars

Secrets of the Moon

this world is coming to an end
the bells are tolling
calling for the devil send

you that have wandered far and wide
the church is open now
and all the stars are blind

it's getting stronger stronger than all words it's stronger than life a genesis injection
this world ain't dead yet
this world ain't dead

the triumph lasts forever
the ultimate award

burning first
only we remember

pain rise
grace falls
we've been taught in pitch black chambers
the rise
the fall
the purest lucifer

satan
i am the three
and they are all in me
servant
lets burn the tree
spit on the graves

so dark
so everlasting
this malicious pulse
this thrilling sounds
when will it ever stop when will it ever start again there is no god that failed when we will crawl to death

someone must die
when the three beggars arrive

let's rebuild satans church let him reign in here forever let him roam through our corridors let his time stand still let him work for a thousand years let him fulfil his paradise let him kiss a thousand youngs carried by the worlds supremacy
