

Lost

Seelenkrank

Something moves out of the dark It's invisible and it's dangerous
It's on his way on his unholy mission You're alone
you're alone
It brings the destruction into your mind
It breaks your power

The nation is falling into your body
It fly me arms into your skull

An evil power comes over you
You are cursed
you are cursed
An unholy force comes over your body
You are lost
you are lost
An evil power comes over you
You are cursed
you are cursed
An unholy force comes over your body
You are lost
you are lost

Black candles in the larger room You're waiting for the master is still to come

The pentagram is painted underground

It's made of blood

it's your own blood

The sky it turns darker the clock stands still

No noise in the air

just an endless silence

Suddenly an terrible cry

Satan is here

Satan is here
