Seether

Have you ever wanted to die
When you were without your friends
Haven't you said goodbye
To the one on who your life depends

Could it be
That I don't wanna save you anymore
Could it be
That we don't have what it takes (yeah)

Have you ever wished for fire
To burn away your mind restraints
Haven't you been for hire
Or suffered those cheap complaints

Could it be
That I don't wanna save you anymore
Could it be
That we don't have what it takes

Take it away
'cause I don't like this anymore
Take it away
And throw it away

Have you ever wanted to die
When you were without your friends
Haven't you said goodbye
To the one on who your life depends

Could it be
That I don't wanna save you anymore
Could it be
That we don't have what it takes

Take it away
'cause I don't like this anymore
Take it away
And throw it away
Take it away
'cause I don't like this anymore
Take it away
And throw it away
