

Senseless Tragedy

Seether

Look into my eyes and see my pain
Now that I lost what I thought I'd gained
Sorrowness and fear is all I taste
Now I understand what I had to waste
My love

Look into the fires you left behind
Smoke and ashes sear my mind
Unconcerned and in denial
Clip my wings, put me on trial
My love

Now there's only me
God has made me weak
Now there's only me
Gone is apathy

Look into my eyes and see my pain
Now that I lost what I thought I'd gained
Sorrowness and fear is all I taste
Now I understand what I had to waste
My love

Now there's only me
God has made me weak
Now there's only me
Gone is apathy

History's in the mind of the teller
Truth is in the tale
History's in the mind of the teller
Truth is in the tale, the tale
Truth is in tale
Truth is in tale
