

Simplest Mistake

Seether

Watch it blow my mind, it's something
I am ill prepared to remedy
But let it slow the time, it takes to die
And close your eyes to your enemy, defy

Self-made millionaires won't take ideas
From all the little plebeians
Just suffocate with smiles and force fed lies
And close your mind to reality, deny

It feels like I'm losing again when I've lost
Everything, I'm sure I will see more clearly
Lose what I'm feeling to them and not feeling
Anything, I'm sure I will bleed sincerely tonight

Watch it blow my mind, it's something
I am ill prepared to remedy
But let it slow the time, it takes to die
And close your eyes to your enemy, defy

It feels like I'm losing again when I've lost
Everything, I'm sure I will see more clearly
Lose what I'm feeling to them and not feeling
Anything, I'm sure I will bleed sincerely tonight

So, you make the simplest mistake
So, you make the simplest mistake
And fearlessly you deny your involvement
In my demise but give me your open hand

It feels like I'm losing again when I've lost
Everything, I'm sure I will see more clearly
Lose what I'm feeling to them and not feeling
Anything, I'm sure I will bleed sincerely tonight

Feels like I'm losing again when I've lost
Everything, I'm sure I will see more clearly
Lose what I'm feeling to them and not feeling
Anything, I'm sure I will bleed sincerely tonight
