

Be Still

Selah

It's so loud
I just can't seem to slow this down
I need you more than ever now
Let the silence be the only sound

Your glory
Becomes the only thing I see
Your beauty brings me to my knees
The awe that you inspire in me

Makes me want to be still
So still you can hear me breathing in
So still you can hear me breathing out
Let Your calm descend upon me now

So now I stand before You broken down
My feet upon this holy ground
I can feel Your presence all around

I hear You whisper softly
I hear You speaking to me
I hear You
In the silence You call my name

I want to be still
So still you can hear me breathing in
So still you can hear me breathing out
Let Your calm descend upon me now

I want to be still Be still
