

Joy

Selah

Every breath of air was a silent prayer
I was longing for your face
And I wondered why
All the years went by
Without a single trace

Anticipating, Lord we've been waiting
Just watching the days come and go
But now we know

Joy
And the angels sang, there was
Joy
Let the whole world know this
Joy
Our King has finally come
Joy
Here is the promised One

Set the captives free
Tell the broken reed
Hope has been restored
And the one who cries
For the wandering child
Her tears are not ignored

Father in Heaven
You gave us reason to see past
The pain of today
We Celebrate

Joy
And the angels sang, there was
Joy
Let the whole world know this
Joy
Our King has finally come
Joy
Here is the promised One
Joy
And the angels sing
Joy
Let the whole world know this
Joy
Our King has finally come
Joy
He is the promised One

Unending hope for all time
When the King of the ages arrived

Joy
Joy
Joy

Joy
Joy
Joy
Joy
Joy

Joy (let the angels sing)
Joy

We've waited so long for this day to come
The One the Father sent to save us
We've seen with our own eyes we've seen
The Promised One

You gave us reason to see past the pain of today
We've waited so long for this day to come
We've seen with our own eyes
The Promised On
