

Body Heat

Selena Gomez

I'm going in, I'm ready to surrender
Like a diamond, I need a little pressure
So press me down till I scream
If you're the flame, I'm kerosene
I'm burning up, baby

All I need is your body heat right next to me
Burning up burning up, so give it up give it up
All I need is your body heat right next to me
I'm burning up baby, all I want is your body heat
Burning up burning up, so give it up give it up
All I need is your body heat

I'm restless, I'm craving your attention
My red lips have found a new obsession
Let's go all night, just you and me
If you're the flame, I'm kerosene
I'm burning up, baby

All I need is your body heat right next to me
Burning up burning up, so give it up give it up
All I need is your body heat right next to me
I'm burning up baby, all I want is your body heat
Burning up burning up, so give it up give it up
All I need is your body heat

I'm burning up, burning up, you're right there
Your body heat right next to me
I'm burning up, burning up, you're right there
Your body heat right next to me
We're connected by the sun
And all of the stars above
You melt me and my body feels no shame
And I don't care tonight
If it burns too bright
Cause baby, that's why I came

All I need is your body heat right next to me
Burning up burning up, so give it up give it up
All I need is your body heat right next to me
I'm burning up baby, all I want is your body heat
Burning up burning up, so give it up give it up
All I need is your body heat
