

Undercover

Selena Gomez

I look at you and all I want to do is disappear
Ohhhh, I got a cravin' for you baby
Can we get out of here

You're a sexy machine
You're a hollywood dream
And you got me feeling like a homecoming queen
Let's drop out of this crowd
Somewhere no ones allowed

I want yooou all to myself
I want you to all to myself
And nobody else, yeah
You don't need no other lover
We can keep it undercover

Flaunt me in the shadows
And pull the shades down until tomorrow
And make sure that no-nobody follows
Yea, you don't need no other lover
We can keep it undercover

You don't need no other lover
We can keep it undercover

I want to find a place where we could be alone in the dark, ooh

You're a sexy machine
You're a hollywood dream
And you got me feeling like a homecoming queen
Let's drop out of this crowd
Somewhere no ones allowed

I want yooou all to myself
I want you to all to myself
And nobody else, yeah
You don't need no other lover
We can keep it undercover

Flaunt me in the shadows
And pull the shades down until tomorrow
And make sure that no-nobody follows
Yea, you don't need no other lover
We can keep it undercover
