

Baby, Can You Dig Your Man

Self

Confidence

All by itself

Your dreams would not be worth much

If they came true to the letter

Pettiness

Made a mess

Your value only goes as far as everyone

And their opinions

This little person made their assertion

This littler person screwed their perversion

Sometimes all I need is my baby

Not just anyone at all

People show me what's up

Somebody help me down

Somebody saw a silhouette of a man

Baby, can you dig your man?

He's a righteous man

Baby, can you dig your man?

Periscope?

Lay back and fro

There's a dragon in the belly of the water

Don't reply because

Someone spoke

A dirty joke

And dirty taste is salty is salty on the tip of his tongue

My little baby wanted to save me

My little baby needed to change me

All I needed was a simple maybe

I guess I'll never tell

If you'll try to refrain

I have this to explain

My boy lifeline is the wind and the rain

Baby can you dig your man

He's a righteous man

Baby can you dig your man

I'll see his like again

Baby can you dig your man?

Populance

Makes so much sense

We'd like to say in closing

Thank you for the chance to say in closing

Ignorance

Should pay well for bliss

Those words will put your eye out

Swallow gum for 7 years

My little baby wanted to save me

My little baby needed to change me

All I needed was a simple maybe

If you'll throw me a rope
Get back to that dirty joke
He ate his breakfast
Now the pigs in the poke
Baby, can you dig your man?
He's a righteous man
Baby, can you dig your man?
