

Five Alive

Self

Out of control losing your soul to devils in holes with game all know forgotten friends died for you sins you can't make amends in role

Brother you're so, so defective so wrong
he don't know he's infected you're just so, so wrong

A happy child drinks five alive freaks bee-bop-a-loo-la yet he's born to be wild his claim to fame, he met big daddy kane on an amtrak train to ronkonkoma

Brother you're so, so defective
he don't know he's infected

Flashing cash flow at every show got blow in his nose and stains on his t-shirt the same old scene like hot wire dreams replace the part where ends justify the means

Brother you're so, so defective
he don't know he's infected
