

Out With A Bang

Self

There's a girl I know
She talks me in circles and
She's finding out now that
Nobody's home
She seems convinced that if
I were the last man on Earth
I still wouldn't stand a chance

Let me comfort you
(It's the end of the world right now)
Please let me kiss your lips
(It's the last minute on earth)
Would you love me if
(It were the end of the world right now)
Let's pretend it is
(The last minute on earth right now)

There was a movie and
Song by McCartney
It was back in the 80's when Chevy Chase was cool
It was the end of the world
They were with russian girls
So he asked his American spy friend
With one minute left in all time
