In The Light Of Things

Sense Field

I'd like to think I was a lover if I could ever bring us back together I'd like to think I was a father if I could get together with my children I'd like to think I was a friend so let us begin I'd like to think I was your friend we can start again in the light of things in the light of things in the light of things I'd like to think I was a thinker if I could even get my thoughts together I'd like to think I was still a child if I could get together with my father I'd like to think that I can see right in front of me I'd like to think that I can breathe in everything in the light of things I'd like to think I was a lover if I could ever bring us back together
