

some will say take cover and some will say take care some will call you over and some will call you out to show you their nightmares, but there are dreams to fill your heart with certainty, there's giving somewhere, I believe there's meaning somewhere here, there's sweetness somewhere here there is freedom here we'll just have to find the innocence of a little boy who accepts nothing less than a miracle
it will never, no never leave you, it will always, always be with you
it will never, no never leave you,
it will always be with you all through your life. because it will be hard to see it will be hard to know, it will be hard to tell,
but you'll be given guides and skies without storms.
there are songs to fill your heart with simplicity, there's healing everywhere, I still believe there's sharing everywhere, there's beauty everywhere, there's happiness here we'll just have to find the gentleness of a little girl
than a miracle
it will always, always be with you
it will always and always be with you
it will never, no never leave you,
it will always be with you all through your life,
it will always and always be with you, all through your life
