

Closure/Rebirth

Senses Fail

Wait, wait for the storm
Of all the memories you thought you could ignore
They will come back
Just like the whore
Who says she'd stop when she still wants more
The drugs she needs she can't afford

And pray the devil back to hell
Bare those teeth
Only time and love can heal
The wounds we're afraid to see

Don't ever close your eyes, don't take this for granted
Everything you wished for everything you've been handed
How well did you love? How fully did you live?
How deeply did you let go? How much did you forgive?

This is life
This is life
This is life
This is life
This is life
This is life
This is life

Let it go, let it go
Let it go, let it go

Young forever I will be
Hearts that do not weep
Old bones that carry me home
I am, I am no longer alone

Closure is the breath that brings you back to earth
Sing the verse of rebirth (rebirth)
Closure is the breath that brings you back to earth
Sing the verse of rebirth

Let it go (Did you ever...)
Let it go (Did you ever...)
Let it go (Did you ever...)
Let it go (Did you ever...)
