

Dreaming a Reality

Senses Fail

Is this what it's like,
A dream lacking serenity?
A wordless conversation,
a "you and I" without a me.

Well I try and I won't get far,
I'll die and I won't get far
I'll try and know that everything...

So I guess this is where I lie (Where I lie)
Where the days are endless
and the nights, they just don't belong.

Dreaming a reality
where truth and fiction don't seem to exist Confusion is home here, but believe in you is what you insist (it's what you insist)

Well I try and I won't get far,
I'll die and I won't get far
I'll try and know that everything's ok

So I guess this is where I lie (Where I lie)
Where the days are endless
and the nights, they just don't belong.
(2x)

Nights, don't belong,
the nights, don't belong,
and the nights, they just don't belong.
(2x)

Nights, they just don't belong (oh they... don't belong)
and the nights, they just don't belong. (oh they... don't belong)
and the nights, they just don't belong.

I'll never be ok, as long as I'm dreaming a reality [above sung in background]
