It looks like I found heaven It's on the tip of my tongue And it reminded me of All the times I was young

I'm catching rain in my open mouth
I used to smile 'til the day I found out
I have no idea who the hell I've become
It's not who I was, it's not who I love

I wanna drown in a sea filled with Novocaine I wanna burn on a beach where the sand Has thousands of needles poking at my skin

I lie in bed to the sound Of the wolves at my door They are speaking in tongues Oh, they join on my floor

I never thought it would come to this Eyes more yellow than my own piss They're making rounds just to even the score Just open the door, just open the door

I wanna drown in a sea filled with Novocaine
I wanna burn on a beach where the sand
Is littered with razorblades
Littered with razorblades, blades
Littered with razorblades

I can't hold on, the path is clear
I can't ignore what's been building for years
There's wolves at the door, I won't hide here in fear
Wolves at the door

I look at myself and the things that I've done Stare away from the mirror and into the sun I forgave myself for all of my mistakes When will I learn? When will I, when will I burn?

I wanna drown in a sea filled with Novocaine I wanna burn on a beach where the sand Is littered with razorblades

I gave up on myself a long time to care
The black clouds that swallowed, spit me out whole
Sometimes I feel like I'm losing my soul
At least that means I still have a soul after all
