

True Bride

Sent By Ravens

A true bride won't bury the ones that hold her
A true bride won't burn what's close to her heart
If I don't make it back, will you keep me

I'm gonna love you like I should
Faithfully unchanging
I'm gonna love you like I should
Faithfully unchanging

A true bride doesn't deserve the weight we offer
A true bride doesn't deserve to be misunderstood
If I don't make it back, will you keep me
If I don't make it back, I need to know you'll keep me

I'm gonna love you like I should
Faithfully unchanging
I'm gonna love you like I should
Faithfully

I'm gonna love you like I should
Faithfully unchanging
I'm gonna love you like I should
Faithfully unchanging

She is a song written fully for worship
She is my home
She is a city built for more than profit
She is my home
