Yes, I am here...
Here at the landscape of my dreams
And what's this perfection?
I feel immortality next to me

I have lived my life in your arms, mother now I'm back to show my gratitude
Take my life, I know that I'm worth of you
And I'll live again and I will live... through the Elk!

Now speak, Serpent, with my tongue
-tell them what you think
-infiltrate the venom in their veins
Brother Wolf, take my mind, use my hands for thee and lead the way to Hall-up-high
- take their lives

Take back what is yours! I've set this sacrifice

(...and now we dance
here in this circle of flames
We praise Your Might
We praise Your power to live...yeah)

Fresh as the North Wind...
You blow right to my heart
Warm as the South Breeze
my blood now covers the sand (and on we die!)

We have lived our lives in your arms, mother Now we're back show our gratitude Take our lives, if you think we're worth of you and we will live again among the sheep... as the Wolves!

Now speak, Hedgehog, with my tongue -tell them what you want and take revenge for a million lives

Sister Swan, spread thy wings, your enemies are mine and let live those who are worth of you -taste our minds -taste our minds -taste our minds -taste our minds -taste our minds
