

Moon Magick

Sentenced

look into the night...
look unto the sky...
face Her nightly shape... feel Her chilling cold - Mother Moon is full!
Her face of agony
Her dismal morbid gleam a shape so desperate - the Moon is full reminding us of pain
reminding us of fear
She's guiding in the night - Her children ah! the Moon is full!
behind that ghostly veil She hides that ghostly shape Her light is guiding us - Her children (as we wonder in the mist)
ah! the Moon is full!
reminding us of pain
reminding us of fear
She's watching in the dark - Her children find Her dismal light adopt Her facial form breed the spawn of night become one with the Moon dismal agony, distant misery I'm drowning in Her eyes and the Moon is full!
